Napoli di Romania, May 18. N. S.

THE Venetian Fleet, which Wintered in this Port, are now in a readineſs to put to Sea, ſtaying only for the arrival of a great Convoy which is daily expected with Proviſions and Ammunition, and a Supply of Men and Money from Venice. We hear little of the Enemies Preparations againſt the Morea; They have not above 10 or 12000 men about Corinth, and in all appearance intend only to be on the Defenſive in thoſe parts; But our Advices from Conſtantinople tell us, they deſign to have a good Fleet at Sea this Summer, and that the Captain-Baſſa had received poſitive Orders to ſail forthwith towards Scio. The ſame Letters ſay, the War with the Moſcovites gives the Turks a great deal of Employment, and will conſiderably leſſen their Army in Hungary, whither the Grand Signior will not be going from Adrianople till about the middle of the next month at ſooneſt.

Falmouth, July 8. On the 5th Inſtant arrived here the Hare Brigantine with Tobacco from Maryland. This morning about 20 Sail paſt by this Harbour to the Eaſtward, ſome of them big Ships.

Barnſtaple, July 9. Yeſterday came into this Port two Veſſels from Leverpoole, the Maſters report, that the Quinborough Man of War, who came out with them, took a French Privateer of 8 Guns near our Bay. A Ship called the Seraphen is arrived here from Norway.

Milford, July 9. Laſt night arrived here His Majeſty's Ship Quinborough, Capt. Gardner Commander, who brought in with him a French Privateer of about 70 Tuns, carrying 6 Guns, 4 Pattereroes, and 48 Men, called the St. Anthony of St. Malo; ſhe was taken near the Iſle of Lundy.

Plimouth, July 11. His Majeſty's Ships the Boyne, and Captain failed hence on the 7th to join the Fleet. The ſame day were put into this Port by contrary Winds the Norwich, Chatham, Sheerneſs, Foreſight, Sun Prize, and Phenix Fireſhip, with divers Merchant Ships bound to the Weſt-Indies. The 8th came in the Plimouth, Dover, and Angleſey, having brought under their Convoy from Ireland 15 Merchant Men bound to London from Barbadoes, Jamaica, and Virginia; as alſo the Canterbury and Katherine Storeſhips. The Cheſter came in the 9th, having left the Fleet commanded by Sir George Rooke, two days before about 20 Leagues to the Weſtward of Uſhant.

Briſtol, July 10. Yeſterday came in the John and Thomas of this Place from Nevis, but laſt from Ireland; as likewiſe the Adventure Ketch of London from Mountſerrat.

Hull, July 10. Yeſterday ſailed from hence our Rotterdam Fleet, who joined divers Ships from Scotland and Newcaſtle, and making together about 50 Sail, they proceeded for Holland, under Convoy of Three Dutch Men of War.
